

Bedtime Story For the Little Ones

UNCLE WIGGILY AND NANNIE'S FLOWERS.

By HOWARD E. GARIN.

"O H, dear!" exclaimed Nurse Jane Fussy Wussy, the nice muskrat lady housekeeper of Uncle Wiggily Longears. The rabbit gentleman, as she sat all wrapped up in a rocking chair. "Ah-ham! A-ker-choo! A-ker-choo!"

"My goodness me, sakes alive and some mustard plasters!" cried the bunny uncle, who was just getting ready to hop out of his hollow stump bungalow. "You are catching cold, Nurse Jane."

"Catching cold!" sneezed and coughed the lady muskrat. "I think the cold has caught me, and it didn't have to run very fast to do it, either. Oh, dear, I don't believe I'll be able to do much housework today. Wiggily, unless I have some medicine."

"I'll go right away and get you some from the five and six cent store," said the bunny uncle. "I'll get you some sneezing, coughing and cold medicine."

"That will be very—ker-choo—kind of—ker-choo—of you!" said Nurse Jane.

Uncle Wiggily hurried out to the chicken coop, where his automobile had been sleeping during the night, and, turning the whizzum-whizzum to make it go, he hopped to ride off to the medicine store.

Now everything would have been all right, except for what happened. Uncle Wiggily was riding along, thinking how sorry he was about Nurse Jane, and how kind she was to him and all that, when, all of a sudden, his automobile ran into a mud puddle on the road left near the last April shower, and there it was.

"Well, you know how it is, when you are running fast and you suddenly step into a slippery mud puddle. It was that way with Uncle Wiggily's automobile. The bologna sausage tires spun around like Sammie Littlelaila's top when it's in a hurry, and then the machine with the rabbit gentleman in it, tried to turn a somersault.

It didn't quite do it, but it stood up on its hind wheels, like a horse when it's playing tag, and then it ran backward and splashed the muddy water all over. Finally it scooted across the mud puddle sideways and stopped.

Uncle Wiggily sat still for a minute, but nothing else happened. He was not Butter Scotch Cake.

CREAM one-half cup of butter and one-half cup of sugar together. Beat in four eggs—one at a time. Add half a cup of milk, three cups of flour and two teaspoonsful of baking powder sieved together thoroughly, and turn into three buttered-layer cake pans. Put into a moderate oven and bake for about thirty minutes. Turn out and put onto a sieve to cool. Place on an icing board and spread the layers thick with a butterscotch filling, put them together and cover over with a boiled maple sugar icing.

Butter Scotch Filling—Put one and a half cups of brown sugar, one half cup of butter in a saucepan, let boil till thick, stirring all the time to prevent scorching. Remove from the fire and pour slowly onto the beaten whites of three eggs, beating them while pouring on till thick, then use. —Tomorrow—Hot Apple Cake.

Questions.

LILLIAN S.—Yes, you can cut the cucumber and rub it on the face for a bleach, or you can boil the cucumbers, cut in pieces, in a little water until soft, mash them through a sieve and strain the juice. Adding a little pure grain alcohol to this to preserve it, will make a refreshing bleach. There are fancier ways of making a bleach, but this answers the purpose very well.

Brown Eyes—Dark circles under the eyes come from an intensely nervous state or run-down health. Maybe all you need is a good tonic. Perhaps the change in the weather will make you feel better. Try drinking lots of milk, and add an extra hour to your sleep. Yes, the soap you mention is very good. No, your arms will not chafe in hot weather if you have removed the hair. You should powder them anyway with good talcum. Try the bleach given Lillian S. above, to bleach the arms.

A Sufferer—Have your feet treated for the bunions by a chiropodist, then follow out his treatment at home. Your foot ache because of the bunions, but temporary relief will always come if you soak them in a hot salt water bath, and powder them afterwards.

I. R. E.—Wetting the hair too much and then doing it up so the air cannot get at it to dry it will of course give it the stale odor you mention. Yes, it is bad for it, it dries out the oils, and

Group of Bewitching Mermaids at the New York Hippodrome—Every One Has a Pretty Baby Complexion--No Sign of Wrinkles or Coarse Sallow Skin--Try this French Beauty Recipe Tonight and Renew the Glow of Youthful Freshness With Creme Tokalon Roseated—Entirely Different from Any Other Cream.

Famous Film Stars and Others Who Have Personally Tested Creme Tokalon Roseated Declare it Should be Used by Every Woman Who Desires Beauty and Fascinating Attractiveness.

Everybody loves a pretty, baby-like complexion, and now there is no reason why any woman, no matter what her age or how wrinkled and aged-looking her skin, cannot surprisingly increase her beauty and attractiveness. It makes no difference how many soaps, creams, lotions and other wanted treatments you have tried without success, if your complexion is not clear, soft and velvety and practically free from any sign of wrinkles or blemishes, you have not been helping it in the right way. No woman can be beautiful and have a complexion glowing with girlish freshness unless she gives her skin an opportunity to act freely and renew its youthful, flexible activity.

If you are not beautiful and youthful-looking, you owe it to yourself, and to those whose admiration you seek, to make the following test tonight: Look at your face in the mirror under a bright light and see if you have cross-eyes or pouches around the eyes, deep lines or furrows in the forehead or about the mouth, sagging cheeks, enlarged pores, blackheads, or a coarse, yellow, mottled complexion. Then wash your face in clear, warm water and rub in a teaspoonful of Creme Tokalon Roseated, which is entirely different from any other cream.

In the morning wash the face with cold water and rub in more of the Roseated Cream, after which use a pure, specially adherent face powder like Poudre Petalier or Poudre Fascination de Tokalon. You will be surprised at the instant improvement. Day by day watch how the old, hardened, coarse, rough skin becomes new, fresh, soft and beautiful, due simply to osmosis.

Note: The above is one of a series of articles on beauty specially written by Mlle. Marex of Paris who after following this recipe, won two great international beauty prizes. She is so positive that it will make every woman between thirty and sixty to quickly make herself look from five to fifteen years younger that she personally guarantees success in every case or will refund the amount paid for any product she recommends, provided you take your dealer's receipt at the time you make your purchase. Furthermore, she offers to forfeit $200.00 to any charitable institution if it can be shown that this method will not give most astonishing new beauty to wrinkled, care-worn, aged women in three days! American address: Mlle. Marex, 28 Avenue de la Paix, Paris, France. Creme Tokalon Roseated can be obtained at small cost from Kelly & Pollard, Warner, People's Drug Store, Scott White & Co., or most any good druggist or department store.—Adv.

AFTER noon today the planets are friendly, for then Mars, Uranus, Saturn and Venus are all to benefic aspect. In the early hours Neptune and the sun are adverse.

It is an uncertain day where the affairs of women are concerned. Those who deal with them should postpone important matter.

Weddings and entertainments that take place in the evening are, well directed.

Theaters and places of entertainment should profit under this rule of the stars.

This should be a particularly fortunate time for planning and carrying out large plans involving engineering or steel construction.

eat a teaspoonful of Japanese sea weed on cereal every day.

Browns—You can make sage tea yourself and use it for a hair darkener or get it already prepared. It is cheaper, and the quality is often better, if you make it yourself.

Canadian Girl—Squeeze the juice of half a lemon in the rinse water when shampooing your hair, or drop in a few drops of peroxide. Either of these will bleach the hair. Also, rub a beaten egg into the scalp before the shampoo, allowing the egg to dry in. This also tends to bleach light hair, though in brunettes, it adds only to the coppery tints of the hair.

F. H.—Your query is answered above in Harry C's reply.

Russian women are now allowed to vote in the elections to the constituent assembly in that country.

TODAY'S AID TO BEAUTY

Hair is by far the most conspicuous thing about us and is probably the most easily damaged by bad or careless treatment. If we are very careful in hair washing, we will have virtually no hair troubles. An especially fine shampoo for this weather, one that brings out all the natural beauty of the hair, that dissolves and entirely removes all dandruff, excess oil and dirt, can easily be used at trifling expense by simply dissolving a teaspoonful of canthrox (which you can get at any druggist) in a cup of hot water. This makes a full cup of shampoo liquid, enough so it is easy to apply it to all the hair instead of just the top of the head. This chemically dissolves all impurities and creates a soothing, cooling lather. Rinsing leaves the scalp spotlessly clean, soft and pliant, while the hair takes on the glossy richness of natural color, also a fluffiness which makes it seem much heavier than it is. After a canthrox shampoo, arranging the hair is a pleasure.—Adv.

Really Removes Hair Roots, or Costs Nothing

(Phelacine, the New Wonder-Worker).

Without doubt the greatest thing yet discovered for hair disfigured womanhood is the wonderful phelacine method. It has none of the disadvantages of electrolysis or depilatories and, best of all, it removes the hairs entire, roots and all! It does this instantly, leaving the skin so smooth and soft that no one can tell the user was ever the possessor of a moustache or other hairy growth.

Phelacine is non-toxic, non-irritating, and so harmless a child could use it without harm. It is a stick of the remarkable substance, accompanied by simple instructions, can be obtained at any druggist, and its price will be refunded upon request in case of dissatisfaction. But what woman would not be satisfied and delighted after seeing these ugly hairs come out—including the roots—with her own eyes?—Adv.
